Experts ready to help

A TEAM OF EXPERTS

All FEDlogic experts have held technical and leadership roles within federal and state programs. Our team understands policies from the inside -out and provide unparalleled practical guidance.

UNLIMITED, CONFIDENTIAL & FREE

Our phone -based consultations are unlimited, confidential, and free to employees and their household members. An expert is available through the entire process of navigating, understanding, and enrolling.

NOTHING TO SELL

Employees can trust us. We don't sell, endorse, or promote any products or services. Our goal is to provide unbiased education to support families in navigating their benefit options.

Good for employees,
*good for you.
